

MISS CROKE

WEEK OF AUG. 24th

THIS WEEK IN PRESCHOOL...

The first full week of was all about getting comfortable in the classroom and learning all the expectations and procedures for the year! Students started practicing in the morning routine with a name writing check-in, carpet meeting, and calendar time. We also began working on pre-writing skills to get ready for letter work! Students worked a lot on strengthening fine motor skills and worked with different STEM activities!

BOOKS WE READ

- * Please, Mr. Panda
- * I'll Wait, Mr. Panda
- * There was an Old Lady who lived in a Shoe
- * The Watermelon Seed

Important reminders & upcoming dates

Please continue to send in a photo of your child! We have a special bulletin board where we are hanging up their pictures, and the students really love sharing with their peers!
